Rules to facilitate court &
not other way around

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

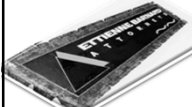

2011/03/16

Useful Transitional Rules

- RULES PROMOTE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE
 - 1(1)-(3)
 - Also see Ncoweni v Bezuidenhout 1927 CPD 130
 - Purpose is “administering justice & not hampering it”
 - Brown Bros Ltd v Doise 1955(1) SA 75 (W)
 - “practical justice”
- PRESCRIBED FORMS INDULGENCE
 - 1(4)(a) Many forms may be adapted as circumstances require
 - 69(b) 12 Month use of old forms

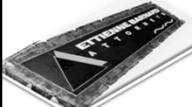

2011/03/16 7

Useful Transitional Rules

- For Serious challenges: Apply into r55(4)(b) for
 - Authority to Institute Proceedings
 - DIRECTIONS AS TO PROCEDURE
 - Directions as to Service of Documents

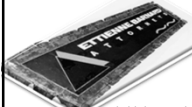

2011/03/16 8

APPLICATION OF RULES

- Adv Danie Van Loggerenberg opinion:
 - Based on Sec 12(2) of the Interpretation Act 33 of 1957
 - If first document issued before 15 of October 2010, old rules apply until the matter is finalised.

2011/03/16 9

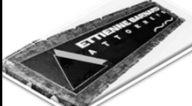

APPLICATION OF RULES INTERPRETATION ACT

Sections 12(2)(c) and (e):

- “(2) Where a law repeals any other law, then unless the contrary intention appears, the repeal shall not –
- (c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed; or
- (e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, forfeiture or punishment as in this subsection mentioned,
- and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if the repealing law had not been passed.”

2011/03/16 10

CASE LAW

- TRANSNET LTD v NGCEZULA 1995 (3) SA 538 (A)
- Curtis v Johannesburg Municipality 1906 TS 308
- “Every law regulating legal procedure must, in the absence of express provision to the contrary, necessarily govern, so far as it is applicable, the procedure in every suit which comes to trial after the date of its promulgation”.

2011/03/16 11

APPLICATION OF RULES

- “....but it is a convenient way of stating the fact that every alteration in procedure applies to every case subsequently tried, no matter when such case began or when the cause of action arose.”
- So if rules are procedural and the legislator did not expressly provide to the contrary, then the new rules apply to all matters from 15 October 2010.

2011/03/16 12

APPLICATION OF RULES

- Rule 1(2): rules must be applied to
 - facilitate expeditious handling and
 - minimize costs.
- Rule 55(4)(b): Ask Court for directions on procedure.
- Rule 1(3): Court may dispense with rules and direct procedure (at a s54 conference.)
- These rules should be used to counteract any unfairness that may result in the application of the new rules

2011/03/16 13

NOTICE OF APPEAL

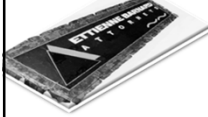

- In die Hof Verdaag, Judge Kees van Dijkhorst quotes the following grounds of appeal in a 1988 Californian case:

“Prosecuting attorney farted about 100 times during defence attorney’s argument”

PIE

Out: Old form of application(Where applicant chose the court date)

Theart and Another v Minnaar NO, Senekal v Winskor 174 (Pty) Ltd 2010 (3) SA 327 (SCA);

NOW SEE:
Cf HC Rule 6

Cape Killarney Property Investments (Pty) Ltd v Mahamba 2001(4)SA1222 (SCA)

2011/03/16 35

Cape Killarney

- [12] Brand AJA: “...It is clear, in my view, that this notice in terms of the Rules of Court is required in addition to the s 4(2) notice...”
- [14] Brand AJA: “In High Court applications the hearing date is determined only after all the papers on both sides have been served. It follows...that it is only at that stage that the section 4(2)notice can be authorised & directed by the court

2011/03/16 36

Cape Kilarney (2)

- [15] NB"Applicant can approach ...court for ... [the s4(2) notice] directions by ...ex parte application
- NB The mistake on the facts was
 - Attempt to evict via a rule nisi ex parte order
 - & did not prove urgency

2011/03/16 37

Cape Killarney Impact toned down:

O D Thiam v Magee Investments CC t/a Magee Property Investments, Case no A516/2007
WCHC Full Bench (19 March 2008)

- Oosthuizen AJ indicated that the dictum of Killarney does not impose a requirement of substantive law in all eviction proceedings

2011/03/16 38

Cape Killarney Impact toned down:

- "As long as proper notice of intention to seek eviction...served on occupiers, and they ...given a fair opportunity of drawing all relevant circumstances to the attention of the court...Section 26(3) of the Bill of Rights and...PIE Act have been respected"

2011/03/16 39

Cape Killarney Impact toned down:

Ansie Senekal v Winskor 174 (Pty) Ltd, case no A516/2007 WCHC Full Bench (23 July 2008)

Veldhuizen J indicated that the SCA in Cape Killarney did not decide that the s4(2) notice could not be contained in the notice of motion issued in terms of rule 6 of the Uniform Rules of Court.

- Ansie Senekal was confirmed by the SCA but with reservations that Killarney still applied for HC rules.

2011/03/16 40

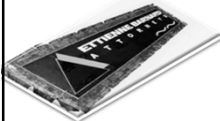

Cape Killarney Impact toned down:

Unlawful Occupiers, School Site v City of Johannesburg 2005 (4) SA 199 (SCA)

Brand JA"Where formalities required by statute are peremptory it is not every deviation from the literal prescription that is fatal..."

"...whether ...deficient s4(2) notice achieved its pupose, cannot be considered in... abstract"
Facts (what respondent knew) relevant.

2011/03/16 41

Cape Killarney Impact toned down:

Moela v Shoniwe 2005 (4) SA 357 (SCA)

"The object of s 4(2) may be achieved even though the service of the notice required by s4(2) had not been authorised by the court."

2011/03/16 42

(a) In default of judgment, the amount of the claim and costs within the said period or of defendant delivering a notice of intention to defend he or she shall be deemed to be the amount of the claim and the plaintiff may proceed thereon and judgment may be given against defendant in his or her favour. (b) The amount of the claim and costs within the said period judgment will not be given against defendant herein and he or she will save himself or herself from judgment charges if, within the said period, he or she lodges with the clerk of the abovesaid Court a notice of intention to defend. (c) If the claimant wish to consent to judgment or wish to undertake to pay the claim in installments or otherwise, defendant may consent or plaintiff's attorney.

NOTICE

(i) Any person against whom a court has, in a civil case, given judgment or made any order who has not, within 10 days, satisfied in full such judgment or order may be called upon by notice in terms of section 65A(1) of the Act to appear on a specified date before the court in chambers to enable the court to inquire into the financial position of the judgment debtor and to make such order as the court may deem just and equitable.

(ii) If the court is satisfied that:

- (a) the judgment debtor or, if the judgment debtor is a juristic person, a director or officer of the juristic person has knowledge of the abovementioned notice and that he or she has failed to appear before the court on the date and at the time specified in the notice; or
- (b) the judgment debtor, director or officer, where the proceedings were postponed in his or her presence to a date and time determined by the court, has failed to appear before the court on that date and at that time; or
- (c) the judgment debtor, director or officer has failed to remain in attendance at the proceedings or at the proceedings so postponed, the court may, at the request of the judgment creditor or his or her attorney, authorize the issue of a warrant directing a sheriff to arrest the said judgment debtor, director or officer and to bring him or her before a competent court to enable that court to conduct a financial enquiry. [Section 65A(6) of the Act]

(iii) Any person who:

- (a) is called upon to appear before a court under a notice in terms of section 65A(1) or 65A(8)(b) of the Act (where the sheriff, in lieu of arresting a person, hands to that person a notice to appear in court) and who willfully fails to appear before the court on the date and at the time specified in the notice; or
- (b) where the proceedings were postponed in his or her presence to a date and time determined by the court, willfully fails to appear before the court on that date and at that time; or
- (c) willfully fails to remain in attendance at the relevant proceedings or at the proceedings so postponed, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months. [Section 65A(9) of the Act]

(iv) On appearing before the court on the date determined in the notice in terms of section 65A(1) or (8)(b) of the Act in pursuance of the arrest of the judgment debtor, director or officer under a warrant referred to in section 65A(6) of the Act or on any date to which the proceedings have been postponed, such judgment debtor, director or officer shall be called upon to give evidence on his or her financial position or that of the juristic person and his or her or its ability to pay the judgment debt. [Section 65B of the Act]

(v) Any person against whom a court has, in a civil case, given any judgment or made any order who has not satisfied in full such judgment or order and paid all costs for which he or she is liable in connection therewith shall, if he or she has changed his or her place of residence, business or employment, within 14 days from the date of every such change notify the clerk or registrar of the court who gave such judgment or made such order and the judgment creditor or his or her attorney full and correctly in writing of his or her new place of residence, business or employment, and by his or her failure to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months. PROVISIONAL SENTENCE (RULE 14A)

- Twee Jonge Gezellen (Pty) Ltd v The Land Bank CCT 68/10 [2011] ZACC2 Concourt decision delivered on 22 February 2011
- declared unConstitution and invalid to the extent that it does not give to courts a discretion to refuse provisional sentence where:
 - the nature of the defence raised does not allow the defendant to show a balance of success in his or her favour without the benefit of oral evidence;
 - the defendant is unable to satisfy the judgment debt; and
 - outside “special circumstances”, the court has no discretion to refuse provisional sentence.

2011/03/16 128

PROVISIONAL SENTENCE (RULE 14A)

- The common law is developed so that courts will in future have a discretion to refuse provisional sentence only in circumstances where the defendant demonstrates:
 - an inability to satisfy the judgment debt;
 - an even balance of prospects of success in the main case on the papers; and
 - a reasonable prospect that oral evidence may tip the balance of prospective success in his or her favour.
